

I am unalterably opposed to any federal action that would weaken Indiana's "No Call" legislation or regulations. The unsolicited calls from vendors , or agencies, of whatever ilk purely for the purpose of advertising or promoting is an unwarranted invasion of privacy and a danger to necessary communication.